2. [ ] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, called and expressed interest in the activities of [ ] 25X1A [ ] whom he described as a [ ] who is the vice president or senior sales officer of the firm [ ] 25X1A According to George Murphy, [ ] has been making a point of telling people how successful he has been in selling computers to the Soviets and to the Communist Chinese. Murphy said he understands the Agency has some information in its reports on the accomplishments of the Communist Chinese in the computer field and would like to have such information as might be available. He said he would also like to know whether the Red Chinese have visited [ ] in connection with work in the computer field. I told Murphy I would look into his questions and be back in touch with him.

3. [ ] Called Charles Kendrick, Administrative Assistant to Senator Peter H. Dominick (R., Colo.), by way of followup to my earlier conversation with him about rules on the part of Colorado State tax authorities with respect to the tax status of annuities paid under the CIARDS. Kendrick said he didn't think they had anything definitive on this as yet, but said he would check and call me back.

5. [ ] Stuart P. French, Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, called about the travel of Moose and Lowenstein, Foreign Relations Committee staff, to Greece. French said Defense has also received a letter from Chairman Fulbright asking for Defense's cooperation on this trip. French said he understood the Agency had briefed Moose and Lowenstein and was interested in any information we could give him about the purposes of their travel. Mr. Maury talked with French about our briefing and told him what he knew about the trip.

6. [ ] Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who told me that the Committee membership of 31 Democrats and 20 Republicans could remain relatively unchanged for the coming session of Congress. In any event, changes in the Democrat/Republican makeup should not affect either the Defense Subcommittee or the handling of Agency matters. I briefed Mr. Preston

7. [ ] In response to his call, I met with Senator Jack Miller (R., Iowa) who asked if I could give him a reading on the [ ] Institute that was established last summer. Senator Miller has a lifelong acquaintance with unusual qualifications that the Senator would like to recommend to the Institute. After checking with [ ] WH Division, I told the Senator that the Agency has no association with the Institute (that we have stayed away from such activities since the Katzenbach recommendations were adopted by the White House some four years ago) and
